

NORTH LODGE PARISH COUNCIL

Councillor Co-option Policy

1. Introduction

This Policy sets out the procedure to ensure there is compliance with legislation and consistency in the co-option of members to North Lodge Parish Council (NLPC). The Co-option procedure and this Policy will ensure that a fair and equitable process is carried out.

In this Policy, County Council means Durham County Council.

2. Co-option

The Co-option of a Parish Councillor occurs when a casual vacancy has arisen on the Council and no poll (by-election) has been called. A casual vacancy occurs when:

- A councillor fails to make his declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time;
- A councillor resigns;
- A councillor dies;
- A councillor becomes disqualified; or
- A councillor fails for six (6) months to attend meetings of the Council, a Council committee or subcommittee or to attend as a representative of the Council a meeting of an outside body.

NLPC has to notify the County Council of a Casual Vacancy and then advertise the vacancy and give electors the opportunity to request an election. This occurs when ten electors or more write to the County Council stating that an election is requested.

If a by-election is called, a polling station will be set up by the County Council and the electors of the Parish will be asked to go to the polls to vote for candidates who will have put themselves forward by way of a nomination paper. NLPC will pay the costs of the election. The electors of the Parish have fourteen days (not including weekends, bank holidays and other notable days), to claim the by-election but the County Council will advise the clerk of the closing date.

If more than one candidate is then nominated a by-election takes place but if only one candidate is put forward they are duly elected without a ballot.

If ten residents do not request a ballot within fourteen days of the vacancy notice being posted, as advised by the County Council, NLPC is able to co-opt a volunteer.

3. Confirmation of Co-option

On receipt of written confirmation from the County Council, the casual vacancy can be filled by means of co-option. The Parish Council Clerk will:

- Advertise the vacancy for four weeks on the Council notice boards and website;
- Advise NLPC that the Co-option Policy has been instigated.

NLPC is not obliged to fill any vacancy. Even if the Council invites applications for co-option, it is not obliged to select anyone from the candidates who apply.

Councillors elected by co-option are full members of NLPC.

4. Eligibility of Candidates

NLPC is able to consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:

- He/she is an elector for the parish; or
 - has resided in the parish during the whole of the past twelve months or rented/tenanted land or other premises in the parish during the whole of the past twelve months; or
 - had his/her principal place of work in the parish during the whole of the past 12 months;
- or
- has lived within three miles (direct) of the parish during the whole of the past twelve months.

There are certain disqualifications for election, of which the main are (see section 80 of the Local Government Act 1972):

- holding a paid office under the local authority;
- bankruptcy;
- having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months without the option of a fine during the five years preceding the election; and
- being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

Candidates found to be offering inducements of any kind will be disqualified.

5. Applications

Candidates for co-option will be requested to:

Submit information about themselves, by way of completing a short application form (Appendix A). Alternatively, applicants may submit a formal CV that meets these requirements.

Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules (Appendix B).

Following receipt of applications, the next suitable Council Meeting will have an agenda item: -

'To receive written applications for the office of Parish Councillor and to co-opt a candidate to fill the existing vacancy'

Copies of the candidates' applications will be circulated to all Councillors by the Clerk at least 3 clear days prior to the meeting of the Council when the co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and all Councillors as 'Strictly Private and Confidential'.

Candidates will also be informed that they will be invited to speak about their application at the meeting.

6. At the Co-option Meeting

At the co-option meeting, candidates will be given five minutes maximum to introduce themselves to Members, give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a Member of NLPC.

As soon as all candidates have finished giving their submissions, the Council will proceed to a vote on the acceptability of each candidate utilizing the 'person specification' criteria set out in Appendix C and any personal statements provided by candidates, with each candidate being proposed and seconded by the Councillors in attendance and a vote by a show of hands. The vote will be recorded so as to show whether each Councillor present and voting gave his/her vote for or against that question.

In order for a candidate to be elected to NLPC, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast.

If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting, the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.

After the votes has been concluded, the Chairman will declare the successful candidate duly elected and after signing their declaration of acceptance of office, may take their place immediately.

The Clerk will notify the County Council of the new Councillor appointment. The successful candidate(s) must complete their 'Registration of Interests' within 28 days of being elected. The form should be handed to the Clerk for forwarding to the Monitoring Officer.

If insufficient candidates come forward for co-option, the process should continue whereby the vacancies are again advertised.
